2. Name and Registered Office

2.1 The name of the Company is British Orienteering Federation Limited.

2.2 The registered office of the Company is to be in England and Wales.

3. Objects

3.1 The objects for which the Company is established ("Objects") are:

3.1.1 to act as the governing body for the Sport in the Territory;

3.1.2 to act as the representative member of the sport for the Territory in international affairs and to affiliate to and carry out functions delegated to it by the International Orienteering Federation and other relevant bodies;

3.1.3 to promote, administer and encourage the development of, and participation in the Sport within the Territory;

3.1.4 to develop and implement a strategy for the development of the Sport in the Territory including strategies for each of: performance at international and national level; national competition; and increasing participation;

3.1.5 to make and vary The Rules of the Sport for persons participating in the Sport in the Territory (including rules against doping in the Sport) from time to time;

3.1.6 to develop a commercial, marketing and public relations programme for the Sport in the Territory;

3.1.7 to develop a competition programme and co-ordinate competition fixtures across the Territory;

3.1.8 to select the representative teams to represent the Territory in international events;

- 3.1.9 to develop and nurture relationships between the Company and the sports councils within the Territory, the British Olympic Association, the relevant Commonwealth Games Councils and relevant government departments;
- 3.1.10 to take such action from time to time as the Board may consider desirable for the benefit of the Sport and the members of the Company;
- 3.1.11 to undertake and execute charitable trusts for the benefit of the Sport; and
- 3.1.12 to do all such other things as shall be thought fit to further the interests of the Company or to be incidental or conducive to the attainment of all or any of the objects stated in this Article 3.

4. Powers

- 4.1 The Company shall have the powers to do all such lawful things as are consistent with the furtherance of its Objects ("the Powers").
- 4.2 The income and property of the Company shall be applied solely towards the promotion of its Objects and no portion thereof shall be paid or transferred directly or indirectly, overtly or covertly by way of distribution, bonus or otherwise by way of profit to the members of the Company.
- 4.3 Nothing in Article 4.2 shall prevent the payment in good faith by the Company:
 - 4.3.1 of reasonable and proper out-of-pocket expenses to any member or any director in accordance with Article 25;
 - 4.3.2 of interest on money lent by a member of the Company or its directors at a commercial rate of interest;
 - 4.3.3 of reasonable and proper rent for premises demised or let by any member of the Company or by any director;
 - 4.3.4 of any premium in respect of the purchase and maintenance of Directors and Officers indemnity insurance in respect of liability for any act or default of the directors (or any of them) in relation to the Company; or

5. Liability of members

5.1 The liability of each member is limited to fifty pence, being the amount that each member undertakes to contribute to the assets of the Company in the event of its being wound up while he is a member or within one year after he ceases to be a member, for any of the items set out in Article 5.2.

5.2 The items for which the members undertake to contribute are:

5.2.1 payment of the Company's debts and liabilities contracted before he ceases to be a member;

5.2.2 payment of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up; and

5.2.3 adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves.

PART 2
DIRECTORS AND OTHER OFFICE HOLDERS

DIRECTORS' POWERS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

6. Directors' general authority

6.1 Subject to these Articles, any Company Rules and Regulations made pursuant to them and the Companies Acts, the Board is responsible for the management of the Company's business, for which purpose it may exercise all the powers of the Company.

6.2 No resolution passed by the Company in general meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the Board which would have been valid if such resolution had not been passed.

7. Directors may delegate

7.1 Subject to these Articles, the Board may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on it under these Articles:

7.1.1 to such person, committee, sub-committee or working party;

7.1.2 by such means (including by power of attorney);

7.1.3 to such an extent;

7.1.4 in relation to such matters or territories; and

7.1.5 on such terms and conditions;

as it thinks fit.

7.2 All acts and proceedings delegated under Article 7.1 shall be reported to the Board in due course.

7.3 If the Board so specifies, any such delegation may authorise further delegation of the Board's powers by any person to whom they are delegated.

7.4 The Board may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions.

8. Committees

8.1 The Board may establish committees and sub-committees and shall:

8.1.1 determine the membership of any committees or sub-committees so established. A sub-committee shall be responsible to the Board through its parent committee for the responsibilities delegated to it;

8.1.2 delegate any of the powers of the Board to committees or sub-committees but the Board shall review any delegation of its powers within a period not exceeding five years.

8.2 Committees to which the Board delegates any of its powers must follow procedures which are based as far as they are applicable on those provisions of these Articles which govern the taking of decisions by the Board.

8.3 The Board may make regulations or procedures for all or any committees, to ensure such committees operate in a way which is compliant with these Articles.

8.4 The Board shall have the power to appoint working parties or individuals to investigate particular problems or organise specific events or administer particular activities, but these working parties shall in no sense be regarded as committees and any such individual shall in no sense be regarded as a director simply as a result of such appointment.

DECISION-MAKING BY DIRECTORS

9. Directors to take decisions collectively

9.1 Any decision of the Board must be either a majority decision or a decision taken in accordance with Article 10.

10. Unanimous decisions

10.1 A decision of the Board is taken in accordance with this Article when all eligible directors indicate to each other by any means that they share a common view on a matter.

10.2 Such a decision may take the form of a resolution in writing, copies of which have been signed by each eligible director or to which each eligible director has otherwise indicated agreement in writing.

10.3 References in this Article to eligible directors are to directors who would have been entitled to vote on the matter had it been proposed as a resolution at a meeting of the Board.

10.4 A decision may not be taken in accordance with this Article if the eligible directors would not have formed a quorum at such a meeting.

11. Calling a meeting of the Board

11.1 The Board may meet together for the dispatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit, provided that at least three such meetings shall be held in each year.

11.2 The Board shall report on their activities to the members at the annual general meeting.

11.3 Any director may call a meeting of the Board by giving notice of the meeting to the directors or by directing the Secretary to give such notice.

11.4 Notice of any meeting of the Board must indicate:

11.4.1 its proposed date and time;

11.4.2 where it is to take place; and

11.4.3 if it is anticipated that directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting.

11.5 Notice of a meeting of the Board must be given to each director, but need not be in writing. A director who is absent from the Territory shall be entitled to notice of a meeting if he has provided a valid e-mail address.

12. Participation in meetings of the Board

12.1 Subject to these Articles, directors participate in a meeting of the Board, or part of a meeting of the Board, when:

12.1.1 the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with these Articles; and

12.1.2 directors can each communicate with other directors any information or opinions they have and hear the information and opinions of other directors on any particular item of the business of the meeting.

12.2 In determining whether directors are participating in a meeting of the Board, it is irrelevant where any director is or how they communicate with each other.

12.3 If all the directors participating in a meeting of the Board are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is.

13. Composition of the Board and Quorum

13.1 At a meeting of the Board, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting.

13.2 The quorum for meetings of the Board may be established from time to time by a decision of the directors, but it must never be less than four, and unless otherwise fixed it is four.

13.3 Subject to Article 13.4, the Board may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body.

13.4 If the total number of directors for the time being is less than the quorum required, the directors must not take any decision other than a decision:

13.4.1 to fill a casual vacancy arising among the directors in accordance with Article 32; or 13.4.2 to admit Voting Members to the Company.

14. Chairing of meetings of the Board

14.1 The Chair shall chair all meetings of the Board at which he shall be present.

14.2 If at any meeting the Chair is not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting or he is not willing to preside, the members of the Board present shall choose one of their number to be chair of the meeting. The person so appointed for the time being is known as "the chair of the meeting".

15. Casting vote in meetings of the Board

15.1 If the numbers of votes for and against a proposal are equal, the chair of the meeting of the Board has a casting vote. This does not apply if, in accordance with these Articles, the Chair or other director, acting as chair of the meeting, is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes.

16. Conflicts of interest

16.1 Subject to Article 16.2, if a proposed decision of the Board is concerned with an actual or proposed transaction or arrangement with the Company in which a director is interested, that director is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes.

- 16.2 The prohibition under Article 16.1 shall not apply when:
- 16.2.1 the Board authorises the director counting towards the quorum and voting on the transaction or arrangement in accordance with Section 175⁷ of the 2006 Act notwithstanding such interest;
 - 16.2.2 the director need not declare an interest pursuant to Section 177⁸ or 182⁹ of the 2006 Act; or
 - 16.2.3 the director's conflict of interests arises from a permitted cause.
- 16.3 For the purposes of Article 16.2, the following are "permitted causes":
- 16.3.1 a guarantee, security or indemnity given, or to be given, by or to a director in respect of an obligation incurred by or on behalf of the Company or any of its subsidiaries (if any); and
 - 16.3.2 arrangements pursuant to which benefits are made available to employees and directors or former employees and directors of the Company or any of its subsidiaries (if any) which do not provide special benefits for directors or former directors.
- 16.4 For the purposes of this Article 16, references to proposed decisions and decision-making processes include any meeting of the Board or part of a meeting of the Board.
- 16.5 Subject to Article 16.7, if a question arises at a meeting of the Board or of a committee of the Board as to the right of a director to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the chair of the meeting whose ruling in relation to any director other than himself is to be final and conclusive.
- 16.6 Where proposals are under consideration concerning the appointment of two or more directors to employment with the Company or any body corporate in which the Company is interested the proposals may be divided and considered in relation to each

7 Duty [of Directors] to avoid conflict of interest
8 Duty to declare interest in proposed transaction or arrangement
9 Declaration of interest in existing transaction or arrangement director separately and (provided he is not for another reason precluded from voting) each of the directors concerned shall be entitled to vote and be counted in the quorum in respect of each resolution except that concerning his own appointment.

16.7 If any question as to the right to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) should arise in respect of the chair of the meeting, the question is to be decided by a decision of the directors at that meeting, for which purpose the chair of the meeting is not to be counted as participating in the meeting (or that part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes.

16.8 A director may vote, and count towards the quorum, in regard to any transaction or arrangement in which he has, or can have, a direct or indirect conflict of interest that conflicts, or possibly may conflict with the interests of the Company only where such matter has been authorised in accordance with Article 16.2.

16.9 The Company may by ordinary resolution suspend or relax to any extent, either generally or in respect of any particular matter, any provision of these Articles prohibiting a director from voting at a meeting of the Board or a committee formed under Article 8.

17. Records of decisions to be kept

17.1 The Board must ensure that the Company keeps a record, in writing, for at least 10 years from the date of the decision recorded, of every appointment by the Board and of every unanimous or majority decision taken by the Board (and all committees) and by the Company at general meeting.

17.2 Any such records, if purporting to be signed by the chair of the meeting, or by the chair of the next succeeding meeting, shall be sufficient evidence without any further proof of the facts therein stated.

18. Ability to make further Company Rules

18.1 Variations to, revocations of and new Company Rules may be proposed in accordance with Article 38.4. Such proposals may include (without limitation) Company Rules:

- 18.1.1 setting out different categories of membership of the Company;
- 18.1.2 setting out rights, privileges and obligations of the different categories of member;
- 18.1.3 setting the levels of subscriptions and affiliation fees to be paid by the different categories of member;
- 18.1.4 setting the level of levies to be paid by organisers of orienteering events.

Such proposals will be presented to a general meeting for adoption.

18.2 The Board (or any committee or sub-committee to whom it delegates its powers) shall have the power to make, vary and revoke Regulations, Policies and procedures for the better administration of the Company including (without limitation):

- 18.2.1 terms of reference as to the function, role and operation of committees to assist the Board in the better administration of the Company;
- 18.2.2 Regulations to ensure compliance with national and international rules relating to doping control;
- 18.2.3 Regulations setting out disciplinary procedures for members;
- 18.2.4 Regulations for the promotion and organisation of competitions;
- 18.2.5 child and vulnerable adult protection policies;
- 18.2.6 equity and equality policies; and
- 18.2.7 such other Regulations, Policies or procedures as the Board thinks fit.

18.3 Company Rules and Regulations made under Articles 18.1 and 18.2 must be compliant with the Companies Acts and these Articles in order to be valid.

APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTORS AND OTHER OFFICE HOLDERS

19. Methods of appointing directors

19.1 The Board shall have eleven (11) members, including:

(a) The Chair, appointed in accordance with Article 26;

19.1.2 Six (6) Elected Directors, elected in accordance with Article 30;

19.1.3 Three (3) Independent Directors, appointed in accordance with Article 31, one of whom will be appointed by the Board to be the Senior Independent Director; and 19.1.4 The Chief Executive, ex officio.

19.2 All acts carried out in good faith at any meeting of the Board or of any committee or sub-committee, or by any person acting as a Director, shall, notwithstanding it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment or continuance in office of any such person be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed or had duly continued in office.

20. Elected Directors

20.1 Each Elected Director shall serve for a three-year term from the end of the annual general meeting at which he is elected to the end of the annual general meeting in the third year after his election.

20.2 Eligibility for re-election shall be governed by Article 22.

20.3 Elections for the office of Elected Director shall be conducted in accordance with Article 30.

21. Independent Directors

21.1 Each Independent Director shall serve for a three-year term from the end of the annual general meeting at which he assumes office until the end of the annual general meeting in the third year after his assumption of office.

21.2 Eligibility for re-appointment shall be governed by Article 22.

21.3 Appointments to the office of Independent Director shall be conducted in accordance with Article 31.

22. Eligibility for more than one term of office as a Director

22.1 Any Elected Director may serve up to two further terms of three years if re-elected and any Independent Director may serve up to two further terms of three years if re-appointed.

22.2 A person may serve as an Elected Director having previously served as an Independent Director, providing he does not serve more than three consecutive terms in total as a Director.

22.3 A person may be appointed as Chair having previously served as an Elected or Independent Director, and a person may serve as an Elected or Independent Director having previously served as Chair, providing he does not serve more than nine consecutive years as a Director in total.

22.4 A person who has served their maximum term in office as a Director may not be reappointed or re-elected for a minimum of four (4) years

23. Termination of director's appointment

23.1 Without prejudice to the provisions of Section 168¹⁰ of the 2006 Act, a person shall cease to be a director of the Company as soon as:

10 Resolution to remove director

- 23.1.1 that person ceases to be a director by virtue of any provision of the Companies Act 2006 or is otherwise prohibited from being a director by law;
 - 23.1.2 a bankruptcy order is made against that person;
 - 23.1.3 a composition is made with that person's creditors generally in satisfaction of that person's debts;
 - 23.1.4 a registered medical practitioner who is treating that person gives a written opinion to the Company stating that that person has become physically or mentally incapable of acting as a director and may remain so for more than three months;
 - 23.1.5 by reason of that person's mental health, a court makes an order which wholly or partly prevents that person from personally exercising any powers or rights which that person would otherwise have;
 - 23.1.6 unless the Board resolves otherwise, that person shall without sufficient reason for three consecutive Board meetings have been absent without permission of the Board;
 - 23.1.7 that person is requested to resign by all the other members of the Board acting together;
 - 23.1.8 if, being an Elected Director, that person ceases to be a member; or
 - 23.1.9 notification is received by the Board from the director that the director is resigning from office, and such resignation has taken effect in accordance with its terms.
- 23.2 A person serving as Chair, Vice-Chair, Treasurer or Secretary who ceases to be a director for whatever reason shall be deemed to have resigned from his position as Chair, Vice-Chair, Treasurer or Secretary (as appropriate) and the vacancy shall be filled in accordance with these Articles.

24. Directors' remuneration

24.1 Subject to the provisions of the Companies Acts, and to Article 24.3 below, the Board may enter into an agreement or arrangement with any director for his employment by the Company or for the provision by him of any services outside the scope of the ordinary duties of a director. Any appointment of a director to an executive office shall terminate if he ceases to be a director but without prejudice to any claim for damages for breach of the contract of service between the director and the Company.

24.2 Subject to the provisions of the Companies Acts, and to Article 24.3 below, the Board may provide benefits, whether by the payment of gratuities or pensions or by insurance or otherwise, for any director who has held but no longer holds any executive office or employment with the Company or with any body corporate which is or has been a subsidiary of the Company or a predecessor in business of the Company or of any such subsidiary, and for any member of his family (including a spouse and a former spouse) or any person who is or was dependent on him, and may (as well before as after he ceases to hold such office or employment) contribute to any fund and pay premiums for the purchase or provision of any such benefit.

24.3 Subject to these Articles, a director's remuneration may take any form and include any arrangements in connection with the payment of a pension, allowance or gratuity, or any death, sickness or disability benefits, to or in respect of that director provided that such remuneration:

24.3.1 is fixed having regard to the current remuneration of directors in comparable posts;

24.3.2 does not exceed the general market rate for directors providing comparable services; and

24.3.3 is not to any extent determined by or conditional upon the profits or losses derived from some or all of the activities of the Company or by reference to the level of the Company's gross income from some or all of its activities.

24.4 No director shall take any loan from the Company.

24.5 For the avoidance of doubt, no payment shall be made by way of remuneration for services reasonably expected from an elected or independent director.

24.6 Unless the Board decides otherwise, directors are not accountable to the Company for any remuneration which they receive as directors or other officers or employees of the Company's subsidiaries (if any) or of any other body corporate in which the Company is interested (if any).

25. Directors' expenses

25.1 The Company may pay any reasonable expenses which the directors properly incur in connection with their attendance at:

25.1.1 meetings of the Board or committees of the Board; or

25.1.2 general meetings; or

25.1.3 otherwise in connection with the exercise of their powers and the discharge of their responsibilities in relation to the Company.

26. Office Holders: Chair

26.1 The Chair shall serve for a three-year term, but shall be eligible for re-appointment for up to two further terms each of three years, subject to Article 22.3.

26.1.1 Where a person who has previously served as an Elected or Independent Director is appointed or re-appointed as Chair, and an appointment of three years would extend beyond the maximum number of years as a Director as specified in Article 22.3, that person may exceptionally be appointed for a term of less than three years. Any term of appointment of less than three years must be for a period which ends at an annual general meeting.

26.2 The office of Chair shall be appointed in accordance with the following procedure:

26.2.1 The Chair shall be recruited through an open and transparent skill and competency-based selection process determined by the Board Operating Procedures. Any vacancy shall be openly advertised. Applicants will be assessed as their suitability by the Appointments Panel and interviewed by the Appointments Panel. The Appointments Panel will recommend a candidate for appointment to the Board.

26.2.2 In the event that the Board is not prepared to appoint a candidate recommended to the Board by the Appointments Panel in accordance with the process set out in Article 26.2.1, it shall provide its reasons to the Appointments Panel and the relevant process shall be repeated.

26.3 The Board shall appoint the Chair by 31 December immediately prior to the AGM at which point the term of office of the Chair commences, but a person so appointed shall not assume the office of Chair until the conclusion of said AGM.

26.4 If a person currently serving as an Elected Director is appointed as Chair, any casual vacancy thus arising shall be filled by election at the annual general meeting from which the Elected Director assumes the office of Chair, in accordance with Article 32.4.

26.5 If a person currently serving as an Independent Director is appointed as Chair, any casual vacancy thus arising shall be filled in accordance with Article 32.2.

26.6 No person shall be both Chair and Chief Executive of the Company at the same time.

27. Office Holders: Vice-Chair, Treasurer, and Senior Independent Director

27.1 The Board will appoint a Director to be each of the office holders, Vice-Chair, Treasurer, and Senior Independent Director, on such terms and for such periods as they think fit and may delegate to each office holder such of their powers as they think desirable to be executed by him. The Board may delegate their power of appointment to an Appointments Panel established in accordance with the published Board Operating Procedures.

27.2 The office holder shall have such rights and privileges as the Board shall from time to time prescribe.

27.3 The office shall be vacated with immediate effect if the person appointed as office holder ceases to be a director of the Company.

28. Chief Executive

Subject to the provisions of the Companies Acts, the chief executive shall be appointed by the Board for such term at such remuneration and upon such conditions as they may think fit and any chief executive appointed may be removed by them.

29. Company Secretary

Subject to the provisions of the Companies Acts, the Company Secretary shall be appointed by the Board for such term at such remuneration and upon such conditions as they may think fit and any Company Secretary appointed may be removed by them.

30. Elections

30.1 Subject to Article 55.4, any Voting Member may nominate another Voting Member to be an Elected Director.

30.2 Elected Director nominations shall, in order to be valid, be received by the Secretary at least fifty clear days before the date of the annual general meeting. Such nominations may be submitted in either of the following ways:

30.2.1 on paper, being signed by two Voting Members of the Company as proposer and seconder of the nomination;

30.2.2 by electronic mail (e-mail) supported by e-mails from two Voting Members of the Company as proposer and seconder of the nomination. Should e-mail be used, the Secretary shall send requests for confirmation to candidate, proposer and seconder at their e-mail addresses as previously notified to the Secretary, and shall deem the nomination void should confirmation not be forthcoming from all three persons within seven days.

30.3 Pen portraits of candidates proposed for election at a general meeting may be submitted and if so submitted shall accompany the agenda mentioned in Article 37.4 provided that they are received by the Secretary at least forty clear days before the date of the general meeting, and provided that each contains no more than one hundred and fifty words.

- 30.4 If there are the same number of candidates as there are vacancies for a post, those candidates shall be declared elected unopposed at the annual general meeting. In the event of there being more nominations than vacancies, there shall be an election at the annual general meeting or a ballot in accordance with the provisions of Article 47.1 as directed by the Board. The results of any such election must be announced at the annual general meeting.
- 30.5 If there are fewer candidates than there are vacancies for a post, those candidates shall be declared elected unopposed and any unfilled post will be treated as a Casual Vacancy as specified under Article 32.3.
- 30.6 Where a vacancy occurs in addition to those arising under Article 20, it shall be filled by the candidate polling most votes but who did not become elected under Article 20.
- 30.7 If two or more candidates secure the same number of votes, any equality that must be resolved will be decided by drawing lots.

31. Appointment of independent directors

- 31.1 Independent Directors shall be appointed by the Board who may delegate their power of appointment to an Appointments Panel established in accordance with the published Board Operating Procedures.
- 31.2 The Appointments Panel shall appoint each Independent Director by 31 December immediately prior to the AGM at which point the term of office of that Independent Director commences, but a person so appointed shall not assume the office of Independent Director until the conclusion of said AGM.

32. Casual Vacancies

- 32.1 Where a casual vacancy arises for the office of Chair, the Board shall appoint a serving Elected or Independent Director to act as Chair until a replacement Chair is appointed.

- 32.1.1 Where the Chair has left office after an annual general meeting but on or before 31 December of that year, the Board shall appoint a serving Elected or Independent Director to act as Chair until the end of the next annual general meeting, and appoint a replacement Chair in accordance with Article 26 to serve a three-year term from the end of the next annual general meeting
- 32.1.2 Where the Chair has left office on or after 1 January but before the end of that year's annual general meeting, and a replacement Chair has already been appointed to take office from the end of that year's annual general meeting in accordance with Article 26, the Board shall appoint a serving Elected or Independent Director to act as Chair until the end of that year's annual general meeting.
- 32.1.3 Where the Chair has left office on or after 1 January but before the end of that year's annual general meeting, and a replacement Chair has not already been appointed to take office from the end of that year's annual general meeting in accordance with Article 26, the Board shall appoint a serving Elected or Independent Director to act as Chair until the end of the annual general meeting in the succeeding year, and appoint a replacement Chair in accordance with Article 26 to serve a three-year term from the end of the annual general meeting in the succeeding year.
- 32.2 The Board may establish an Appointments Panel to fill a casual vacancy arising amongst the independent directors by appointing a replacement director. The Appointments Panel shall be constituted as in Article 31.
- 32.2.1 Where a casual vacancy arises as the result of an independent director leaving office more than nine months before the end of his term of office, the Board shall, within one month establish an Appointments Panel to appoint a replacement director to serve the remaining part of the term of office.
- 32.3 The Board or an Appointments Panel established for the purpose by the Board may fill a casual vacancy arising among the elected directors by co-opting a replacement director. Such a casual vacancy may only be filled and have periods of appointment as follows:

- 32.3.1 Where an elected Director has left office after an annual general meeting but on or before 31 December of that year, co-option may take place on or before 31 December in that year and the term of office will be until the end of the next annual general meeting.
- 32.3.2 Where an elected Director has left office on or after 1 January but before the end of that year's annual general meeting, and where that Director's term of office does not end at that year's annual general meeting, co-option may take place on or before 31 December in that year and the term of office will be until the end of the annual general meeting in the succeeding year.
- 32.4 For a vacancy to be filled by election at an annual general meeting, it must, by 31 December of the preceding year, exist or be known to be arising as a result of there being part of a term of office to fill or an elected Director whose resignation will have taken effect by the end of the annual general meeting.
- 32.5 A Director who is co-opted shall be eligible to stand for election at the annual general meeting where he leaves office, provided the provisions of Article 30 are adhered to.
- 32.6 The period served by a co-opted director or a person appointed or elected to fill the remainder of the term of office of a director who leaves office shall count as a term of office for the purposes of Article 20.
- 32.6.1 However, where a co-opted director is elected at the annual general meeting where his term of co-opted office ends and he is elected to a partial term of one or two years, the combined period will be counted as a term of office for the purposes of Article 20.
- 32.7 A casual vacancy arising among the offices of Vice-Chair, Treasurer or Senior Independent Director shall be filled by the Board as in Article 27.

PART 3
MEMBERS

BECOMING AND CEASING TO BE A MEMBER

33. Applications for membership

33.1 No person shall become a member of the Company unless:

33.1.1 that person has completed an application for membership in such form as required by the Board, and 33.1.2 the Board has approved the application.

33.2 The Board may in its absolute discretion accept or reject any person or body applying for membership.

33.3 The Company in general meeting may from time to time fix the levels of annual subscriptions or affiliation fees to be paid by the different categories of members.

34. Categories of Membership

34.1 The categories of membership are specified within the Company Rules in Article 55.

34.2 In addition to its members, the Company shall recognise the following:

34.2.1 Constituent Associations, named within the Company Rules in Article 55.7.

34.2.2 Affiliated Clubs, being Orienteering Clubs registered with the Company as having paid the appropriate club affiliation fee for the current year and any further requirements as determined at general meeting.

35. Conditions of membership

35.1 Any person on agreeing to become or having been accepted as a member of the Company shall be deemed to have agreed to be bound by these Articles of Association of the Company whether or not he shall have signed a written statement to that effect.

35.2 All members shall be subject to the Company Rules.

35.3 All bodies listed in Article 34.2 shall be required to comply with the published policies of the Company including, but not limited to, those relating to Child Welfare and Equality.

35.3.1 The Board shall have the power to impose penalties or sanctions on any body listed in Article 34.2 if that body does not after reasonable notice comply with such policies.

35.3.2 Such penalties or sanctions may include withdrawal of the right to enter Company competitions, to have events or competitions publicised by the Company, or to benefit from services developed by the Company including, but not limited to, insurance, support from Company staff, and participation in Conferences or courses.

35.3.3 Sanctions other than those listed in Article 35.3.2 may be imposed, where appropriate, at the Board's discretion.

35.3.4 Any member of the Company who is affected by a decision of the Board, of any Committee of the Board, or of any body or individual who has been delegated authority to make decisions on behalf of the Board, will have the right to appeal that decision, provided there are sufficient grounds for the appeal as set out in the Company Appeal Policy.

35.4 Each member shall pay any annual subscription set by the Company at general meeting under Article 33.3. Any member whose subscription is more than three months in arrears shall be deemed to have resigned his membership of the Company unless the Board decides otherwise.

36. Termination of membership

- 36.1 It shall be the duty of the Board, if at any time it shall be of the opinion that the interests of the Company so require, by notice in hard copy form sent by prepaid post to a member's address, to request that member to withdraw from membership of the Company within a time specified in such notice. No such notice shall be sent except on a vote of the majority of the directors present and voting, which majority shall include one half of the total number of the Board for the time being.
- 36.2 If, on the expiry of the time specified in such notice, the member concerned has not withdrawn from membership by submitting notice in hard copy form of his resignation, or if at any time after receipt of the notice requesting him to withdraw from membership the member shall so request in hard copy form, the matter shall be submitted to a properly convened and constituted meeting of the Board or such sub-committee to which it has delegated its powers.
- 36.2.1 The Board or sub-committee and the member whose expulsion is under consideration shall be given at least fourteen days' notice of the meeting, and such notice shall specify the matter to be discussed.
- 36.2.2 The member concerned shall at the meeting be entitled to present a statement in his defence either verbally or in hard copy form, and he shall not be required to withdraw from membership unless a majority of the Board members or sub-committee members present and voting shall, after receiving the statement in his defence, vote for his expulsion, or unless the member fails to attend the meeting without sufficient reason being given.
- 36.2.3 If such a vote is carried, or if the member shall fail to attend the meeting without sufficient reason being given, he shall thereupon cease to be a member and his name shall be erased from the register of members.
- 36.2.4 A member may appeal against such decision by notifying the Board who shall put the matter to a general meeting for it to be decided by a majority vote of the members present and voting at such meeting. If the Board's decision is upheld, the member will be liable for the costs of holding the general meeting.

- 36.3 A member may withdraw from membership of the Company by giving seven clear days' notice to the Company in writing.
- 36.4 A membership terminates automatically when a person dies or ceases to exist or on the failure of the member to comply or to continue to comply with any condition of membership set out in these Articles or the Company Rules or Regulations.
- 36.5 Membership is not transferable.
- 36.6 Any person ceasing to be a member forfeits all rights in relation to and claims upon the Company, its property and its funds and has no right to the return of any part of his subscription.

ORGANISATION OF GENERAL MEETINGS

37. Notice of and Calling General Meetings

- 37.1 General meetings must be called giving at least seventy clear days' written notice.
- 37.2 A general meeting may be called at any time by the Board or by the Secretary acting on behalf of the Board or must be called on a written request to the Board from at least 5% of the Voting Members or must be called on requisition by the executive committee of at least three Constituent Associations.
- 37.2.1 The current 5% figure of the number of members is available on application to the Office and remains valid for one calendar month of it being advised.
- 37.3 On receipt of a written request made pursuant to Article 37.2, the Secretary must, within twenty-one days, issue notice calling a general meeting.
- 37.4 The agenda, resolutions duly proposed for consideration and nominations of candidates proposed for election at a general meeting shall be provided to members at least 21 clear days before the General Meeting.
- 37.5 At all General Meetings only the business notified in the agenda accompanying the notice shall be transacted.

38. Annual General Meetings

- 38.1 The Company shall hold a general meeting in every calendar year as its annual general meeting at such time and place as may be determined by the Board and shall specify the meeting as such in the notices calling it.
- 38.2 The annual general meeting shall be held for the following purposes:
- 38.2.1 to receive from the Board the Company's accounts;
 - 38.2.2 to receive from the Board a report of the activities of the Company since the previous annual general meeting;
 - 38.2.3 to appoint the Company's auditors;
 - 38.2.4 to decide the annual subscriptions and affiliation fees
 - 38.2.5 to transact such other business as may be legitimately brought before it;
 - 38.2.6 to appoint (as appropriate) the President, and Vice-President(s); and
 - 38.2.7 to elect the Elected Directors in place of those retiring.
- 38.3 All general meetings, other than annual general meetings, shall be called general meetings. The Company may hold general meetings as it deems appropriate. The business of such general meetings shall be decided by the Board subject to due notice having been given.
- 38.4 All resolutions to be submitted to a general meeting shall be received in writing by the Secretary at least fifty clear days before the date of the general meeting and shall be authenticated by two Voting Members of the Company as proposer and seconder of the resolution, or submitted by the Board which resolution does not require a seconder. A supporting statement from the proposer may accompany the proposal as may a statement from the current Board of the Company if not the proposer.
- 38.5 Nominations in respect of the President and Vice-President(s) proposed for election shall be received by the Secretary at least fifty clear days before the date of the annual general meeting and shall be authenticated by two Voting Members of the Company as proposer and seconder of the nomination or be submitted by the Board.

39. Attendance and speaking at general meetings

39.1 A person is able to exercise the right to speak at a general meeting when that person is in a position to communicate to all those attending the meeting, during the meeting, any information or opinions which that person has on the business of the meeting.

39.2 A person is able to exercise the right to vote at a general meeting when:

39.2.1 that person is able to vote, during the meeting, on resolutions put to the vote at the meeting: and

39.2.2 that person's vote can be taken into account in determining whether or not such resolutions are passed at the same time as the votes of all the other persons attending the meeting.

39.3 The Board may make whatever arrangements they consider appropriate to enable those attending a general meeting to exercise their rights to speak or vote at it.

39.4 In determining attendance at a general meeting, it is immaterial whether any two or more members attending it are in the same place as each other.

39.5 Two or more persons who are not in the same place as each other attend a general meeting if their circumstances are such that if they have (or were to have) rights to speak, hear and vote at that meeting, they are (or would be) able to exercise them.

40. Quorum for general meetings

40.1 No business other than the appointment of the chair of the meeting is to be transacted at a general meeting if the persons taking part in the meeting do not constitute a quorum.

40.2 Subject to Article 43.6, fifty Voting Members present in person or by a proxy shall be a quorum.

41. Chairing general meetings

41.1 The Chair shall chair general meetings if present and willing to do so. If the Chair shall be absent, or if at any meeting he is not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the same, the Vice-Chair shall preside. If the Vice-Chair is also not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the same or is unwilling to chair, the directors present must appoint a director or member to chair the meeting. If, by the same time, there are no directors present, the meeting must appoint a member to chair the meeting, and the appointment of the chair of the meeting must be the first business of the meeting.

41.2 The person chairing a meeting in accordance with this Article is referred to as "the chair of the meeting".

42. Attendance and speaking by directors and non-members

42.1 Directors may attend and speak at general meetings.

42.2 The chair of the meeting may permit other persons who are not members of the Company to attend and speak at a general meeting.

43. Adjournment

43.1 If the persons attending a general meeting within half an hour of the time at which the meeting was due to start do not constitute a quorum, the chair of the meeting must adjourn it.

43.2 The chair of the meeting may adjourn a general meeting at which a quorum is present if:

43.2.1 the meeting consents to an adjournment, or

43.2.2 it appears to the chair of the meeting that an adjournment is necessary to protect the safety of any person attending the meeting or to ensure that the business of the meeting is conducted in an orderly manner.

- 43.3 The chair of the meeting must adjourn a general meeting if directed to do so by the majority of Voting Members attending the meeting.
- 43.4 When adjourning a general meeting, the chair of the meeting must:
- 43.4.1 either specify the time and place to which it is adjourned or state that it is to continue at a time and place to be fixed by the directors, and
 - 43.4.2 have regard to any directions as to the time and place of any adjournment which have been given by the meeting.
- 43.5 If the continuation of an adjourned meeting is to take place more than thirty days after it was adjourned, the Company must give at least seventy clear days' notice of it:
- 43.5.1 to the same persons to whom notice of the Company's general meetings is required to be given; and
 - 43.5.2 containing the same information which such notice is required to contain.
- 43.6 No business may be transacted at an adjourned general meeting which could not properly have been transacted at the meeting if the adjournment had not taken place provided that if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for holding the meeting twenty-five Voting Members shall be a quorum.

VOTING AT GENERAL MEETINGS

44. Voting: general

- 44.1 Every Voting Member shall be entitled to receive notice of, attend general meetings and cast one vote.
- 44.2 A resolution put to the vote of a general meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is duly demanded in accordance with these Articles. Except where otherwise provided by the Companies Acts, every resolution is decided by a majority of votes cast. For avoidance of doubt, explicit or implicit abstentions are not counted as votes cast.

44.3 Every Voting Member is entitled to send one person to act as proxy to general meetings and only that proxy shall have a vote for that Voting Member.

45. Errors and disputes

45.1 No objection may be raised to the qualification of any person voting at a general meeting except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting is valid.

45.2 Any such objection must be referred to the chair of the meeting whose decision is final.

46. Poll votes

46.1 A poll on a resolution may be demanded:

46.1.1 in advance of the general meeting where it is to be put to the vote, or

46.1.2 at a general meeting, either before a show of hands on that resolution or immediately after the result of a show of hands on that resolution is declared.

46.2 A poll may be demanded by:

46.2.1 the chair of the meeting;

46.2.2 the Board; or

46.2.3 three or more Voting Members present in person or proxy having the right to vote on the resolution.

46.3 A demand for a poll may be withdrawn if:

46.3.1 the poll has not yet been taken, and

46.3.2 the chair of the meeting consents to the withdrawal.

46.4 Polls shall be taken as the chair of the meeting directs and he may appoint scrutineers (who need not be members) and fix a time and place for declaring the result of the poll.

The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

46.5 A poll demanded on any question shall be taken forthwith. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll was demanded. If a poll is demanded before the declaration of the result of a show of hands and the demand is duly withdrawn, the meeting shall continue as if the demand had not been made.

47. Ballot

47.1 The Board may decide, in advance of a general meeting, to call a ballot in respect of an election which would otherwise be put to the vote at the general meeting. If there is to be a ballot, the details of the nominees and methods for voting shall be sent to the Voting Members at such time as the Board shall prescribe. Voting returns must be made by such method and time as the Board shall prescribe and shall be counted by such person or persons as the Board shall decide.

47.2 The result of the ballot will be declared at the general meeting at which it would otherwise have been put to the vote.

48. Proxy notices

48.1 Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in writing (a "proxy notice") which:

48.1.1 states the name and address of the Voting Member appointing the proxy;

48.1.2 identifies the person appointed to be that member's proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed;

48.1.3 is signed by or on behalf of the Voting Member appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the directors may determine;

48.1.4 if not executed by the person appointing the proxy, must be accompanied by written evidence of the authority of the person who executed it to execute it on behalf of the appointer; and

48.1.5 is delivered to the Office no later than forty-eight hours before the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it refers and in accordance with these Articles and any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting to which they relate.

48.2 The Board may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes.

48.3 Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.

48.4 Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as:

48.4.1 allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting, and 48.4.2 appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.

49. Revocation of proxy notices

49.1 A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the Office by or on behalf of that person.

49.2 An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the Office no later than forty-eight hours prior to the meeting, or in person to the chair of the meeting at the meeting and before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting, a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given.

49.3 A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered no later than forty-eight hours prior to the meeting to the Office or to the chair of the meeting at the meeting and before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.

50. Amendments to resolutions

50.1 An ordinary resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution if:

50.1.1 notice of the proposed amendment is given to the Company in writing by a person entitled to vote at the general meeting at which it is to be proposed before the meeting is to take place or at the meeting, and

50.1.2 the proposed amendment does not, in the reasonable opinion of the chair of the meeting, materially alter the intention of the resolution.

50.2 A special resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution, if:

50.2.1 the chair of the meeting proposes the amendment at the general meeting at which the resolution is to be proposed, and

50.2.2 the amendment does not go beyond what is necessary to correct a grammatical or other non-substantive error in the resolution.

50.3 With the consent of the chair of the meeting, an amendment may be withdrawn by its proposer at any time before the resolution is voted upon.

50.4 If the chair of the meeting, acting in good faith, wrongly decides that an amendment to a resolution is out of order, the chair's error does not invalidate the vote on that resolution.

PART 4
ADMINISTRATIVE ARRANGEMENTS

51. Means of communication to be used

51.1 Subject to these Articles, anything sent or supplied by or to the Company under these Articles may be sent or supplied in any way in which the 2006 Act provides for documents or information which are authorised or required by any provision of the 2006 Act to be sent or supplied by or to the Company.

51.2 The applicable address shall be:

51.2.1 in the case of a Voting Member at his registered address as it appears in the register of members or by giving notice using electronic communications to an address for the time being notified to the Company by the Voting Member; and

51.2.2 in the case of a Non-Voting Member, at his last known address or by giving notice using electronic communications to an address for the time being notified to the Company by the member.

51.3 Subject to these Articles, any notice or document to be sent or supplied to a member of the Board in connection with the taking of decisions by the Board may also be sent or supplied by the means by which that director has asked to be sent or supplied with such notices or documents for the time being.

51.4 A director may agree with the Company that notices or documents sent to that director in a particular way are to be deemed to have been received within a specified time of their being sent, and for the specified time to be less than forty-eight hours.

51.5 Any Voting Member described in the register of members by an address not within the Territory shall be entitled to have notices served upon him at a specified address within the Territory, or an address to which notices may be sent using electronic communications.

51.6 Any notice, if served by post, shall be deemed to have been served on the third day following that on which the letter containing the same is put into the post, and in proving such service it shall be sufficient to prove that the letter containing the notice was properly addressed and put into the post as a prepaid letter. Any notice, if served by electronic communications, shall be deemed to have been given at the expiration of forty-eight hours after the time it was sent.

52. No right to inspect accounts and other records

Except as provided by law or authorised by the Board or an ordinary resolution of the Company, no person is entitled to inspect any of the Company's accounting or other records or documents merely by virtue of being a member.

DIRECTORS' INDEMNITY AND INSURANCE

53. Indemnity

53.1 Subject to Article 53.1.3, a relevant director of the Company or an associated company may be indemnified out of the Company's assets against:

53.1.1 any liability incurred by that director in connection with any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to the Company or an associated company;

53.1.2 any liability incurred by that director in connection with the activities of the Company or an associated company in its capacity as a trustee of an occupational pension scheme (as defined in Section 235(6)¹¹ of the 2006 Act);

53.1.3 any other liability incurred by that director as an officer of the Company or an associated company.

53.2 This Article does not authorise any indemnity which would be prohibited or rendered void by any provision of the Companies Acts or by any other provision of law.

53.3 In this Article:

¹¹ Qualifying pension scheme indemnity provision

53.3.1 companies are associated if one is a subsidiary of the other or both are subsidiaries of the same body corporate, and

53.3.2 a "relevant director" means any director or former director of the Company or an associated company.

54. Insurance

54.1 The Board may decide to purchase and maintain insurance, at the expense of the Company, for the benefit of any relevant director in respect of any relevant loss.

54.2 In this Article:

54.2.1 a "relevant director" means any director or former director of the Company or an associated company;

54.2.2 a "relevant loss" means any loss or liability which has been or may be incurred by a relevant director in connection with that director's duties or powers in relation to the Company, any associated company or any pension fund of the Company or associated company; and

54.2.3 companies are associated if one is a subsidiary of the other or both are subsidiaries of the same body corporate.

55. Company Rules

55.1 Only the Voting Members in general meeting may from time to time make, vary and revoke Company Rules:

55.2 The Membership of the Company shall be in categories as shall, from time to time, be approved by a general meeting of the Company.

55.3 Individuals elected as Honorary Members at a general meeting of the Company will not be required to pay a membership fee to the Company but shall have voting rights and guarantor responsibilities.

55.4 Voting Members shall be those members:

55.4.1 who will, by 31 December of the year in which the vote is to be exercised, have attained the age of eighteen years,

and

55.4.2 who are not in default on payment of annual subscription to the Company.

55.5 Such Voting Members shall have one vote.

55.6 All other members shall have no vote.
